I've been making music for years and I always keep the same pedal board. However, my desire to be able to carry my rig with me has brought me back to the ancient ways of sonic carry-on.

The results of this new method of gear use are, as you can surmise, some of the best guitar sounds you've ever heard. The Clavia Nordmann is a really incredible pedal. It takes some work to get used to, but when it does what it does, it's amazing. The Nordmann is capable of some really nasty, all-out metal textures and is awesome at shaping your sound into something unique.

Whether it's giving you a smooth full-bodied amp sound, a raw distorted bass tone, or a raw clean tone and even an alternative clean tone, the Nordmann is a go-to pedal for any guitarist. Learn more... The functional power of the D-Beater with its 8-band EQ, 2-band gain, and tone control, along with a physical switch that offers up to 7 different guitar effects makes it the toughest gigging tool the world has ever seen. The D-Beater is a true professional instrument and the sounds it produces are pure magic. It is without a doubt the best rhythm machine on the market, and the most versatile pedalboarder! Low priced.
