Harry Potter may not have come from the West but it had a big impact there and that was good for India because it gave life to many people. Yes, people who read Harry Potter later formed The West, but that is not a bad thing. It is always better to try and come up with something that people can relate to and enjoy instead of trying to create something that is new and alien to them. If you have not read the books. You are missing out on one of the greatest stories ever told. Do it, now!
